Highlights

To meet the challenge of reducing enrollment and revenue the District is planning to implement a four-day school week as well as consolidate two elementary schools.

The School District passed a Maintenance and Operation levy in the amount of $556,000 with an approval rate of over 81%. In addition, the new transportation and vo-tech/art facilities will be completed fall 2006.

A new student management system will be gradually implemented district wide with all buildings online by Spring 2007.

The School District strives to meet NCLB guidelines and currently employs a HQT staff.

The alternative school continues to be successful with the addition of an IDLA curriculum.
